

Age 30 and under Candidates

2002 Candidates

Georgia's 2002 General Election featured a significant number of candidates below the age of 30. Six of these young people were even elected to office.

- Matt Dollar, age 24, elected to State House District 31.
- Craig Brock, age 26, elected to State House District 5.
- Ron Sailor, age 28, elected to State House District 61 Post 1.
- Preston Smith, age 29, elected to State Senate District 52.
- Rob Teilhet, age 28, elected to State House District 34 Post 2.
- Alisha Thomas, age 23, elected to State House District 33 Post 1.
- Scott Davis, age 25, candidate for State House District 61 Post 2.
- Travis Flanders, age 26, candidate for State House District 140.
- Will Hurst, age 29, candidate for State House District 129 Post 1.
- Chris Huttman, age 22, candidate for State House District 52.
- Mike Pitts, age 29, candidate for Secretary of State.
- Danae Roberts, age 24, candidate for State House District 109.
- Matt Shultz, age 29, candidate for State House District 19.
- Jessie Vaughn, age 29, candidate for State House District 10.

Voter turnout in Georgia among 18 to 24 year olds

2000 Election (Presidential election year)      44 %

1998 Election (Gubernatorial election year)      19%

Total Estimated Voter Turnout for 2002 Election*

53.6%

**In the near future, we will have exact turnout number broken down by age.*